

ENG 245 (Spring 2022—Halbert)
Final Exam Quotation Guide

QUOTE: Suppose these houses are really some other shape, a Martian shape, but, by playing on my desires and wants, these Martians have made this seem like my old home town, my old house, to lull me out of my suspicions? What better way to fool a man, by his own emotions.

QUOTE: And wouldn't it be horrible and terrifying to discover that all of this was part of some great clever plan by the Martians to divide and conquer us, and kill us. Some time during the night, perhaps, my brother here on this bed, will change form, melt, shift, and become a one-eyed, green and yellowtoothed Martian. It would be very simple for him just to turn over in bed and put a knife into my heart.

QUOTE: Edward Black gave him a brotherly knock on the chin. "Mom's waiting," he said. "Mom?" "And Dad, too." "And Dad?" The captain almost fell to earth as if hit upon the chest with a mighty weapon. He walked stiffly and awkwardly, out of coordination. He stuttered and whispered and talked only one or two words at a time. "Mom alive? Dad? Where?" "At the old house on Oak Knoll Avenue."

QUOTE: His brother's voice was quite cold. "I said, where do you think you're going?" "For a drink of water." But you're not thirsty." "Yes, yes, I am." "No, you're not."

QUOTE: I had been told all my life that this was a good and necessary thing Tlic and Terran did together—a kind of birth. I had believed it until now. I knew birth was painful and bloody, no matter what. But this was something else, something worse. And I wasn't ready to see it. Maybe I never would be. Yet I couldn't not see it. Closing my eyes didn't help.
