QUOTE: Thirdly, the end to improve our lives to do more service to our Lord; the comfort and increase of the body of Christ, whereof we are members, that ourselves and posterity may be the better preserved from the common corruptions of this evil world to serve the Lord and work out our salvation under the power and purity of his holy ordinances.

SOURCE: John Winthrop. A Model of Christian Charity. Pg.195

QUOTE: For we must consider that we shall be as a city upon a hill. The eyes of all people are upon us. So that if we shall deal falsely with our God in this work we have undertaken, and so cause him to withdraw his present help from us, we shall be made a story and a by-word through the world. We shall open the mouths of enemies to speak evil of the ways of God, and all professors for God's sake. We shall shame the faces of many of God's worthy servants, and cause their prayers to be turned into curses upon us till we be consumed out of the good land whither we are a going.

SOURCE: John Winthrop. A Model of Christian Charity. Pg.195

QUOTE: Cropped by th' Almighty's hand; yet he good.
With dreadful awe before him let's be mute,
Such was his will, but why, let's not dispute
With humble hearts and mouths put in the dust,
Let's say he's merciful, as well as just.
